

FLORENCE VAN DYKE

Co-founder, Chia Sisters

Florence van Dyke is the co-founder of Chia Sisters, an international, multi-million dollar beverage company supplying Australasia's most nutritious and sustainable juices across New Zealand, Australia and Asia. Chia Sisters is Zero Carbon, B Corp and Living Wage certified based in a solar-powered juicery in New Zealand.

Florence is also the founder of Businesses for Climate Action. For her work in the climate change and business space, Florence is recognised on the Forbes 30 under 30 list; as a New Zealand Women of Influence and Edmund Hillary Fellow.

Florence is a lawyer by training, previously working at Bell Gully and for the United Nations. This year Florence has accepted a scholarship to study entrepreneurship and sustainability at University of California, Berkeley.